

Margaret Björk Svavarsdóttir

Margrét Björk Svavarsdóttir is an economist with a MSc. in health economics (2011) from the University of Iceland. She is currently working in the department of Economic Analysis in the Ministry of Welfare. She is responsible for tasks related to resource allocation, analysis of health care and cost statistics, management of statistics and data on health care and costs and other economic evaluations e.g. on efficiency and profitability. She has experience in workforce forecasting and staff analysis, data collection, data reviewing and verification.